Applicable to all Evolution brand-related competitions, original, curated & user-generated-content

REVIEW TOOLS & VLOGGER POLICY

Please note all review tools are free to dispose off or perhaps donated to charity as it is not cost effective for us as a business to arrange collection, shipping and then reconditioning of the tool. The tool itself and it's market value is by no means meant as personal compensation to leave a favourable review. All content will be credited to the respective owners. Social media video reviews will be marked with your name and own social media channels in order to provide viewers with a credible source of reference and credit in addition to publicity for the content creator.

The information and content you provide will only be used for Evolution Power Tools and it's retailers social media/ advertising channels in a manner that allows people to create, share or exchange information, ideas and pictures/videos in virtual communities and networks. All reviewers, as a condition, agree to be bound by these terms and the decisions of Evolution Power Tools and it's recommended power tool use and relevant health and safety laws in operation.

All reviewers on their social media channels are kindly requested to include this link where Evolution Power Tool content is published to efficiently solve inbound enquiries:
